- ♣ Document Title – WeP Solutions Limited – Internal Code for Prevention of Insider Trading
- ♣ Approving Authority – Board of Directors
- ♣ Originally Framed – 29th May 2013. Last Amendment - 18th May 2015
- ♣ Current Revision Effective Date – 1st April 2025.
- ♣ Date of Approval of the Revised Policy – 17th May 2025.

Company's existing policy approved by the Board of Directors on 18th May 2015 is replaced by this policy in order to make it more aligned with the recent amendment(s) dated 12th March 2025 to The SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading), 2015.

I. OBJECTIVE AND APPLICABILITY OF THE CODE

Insider Trading is prohibited under this Policy of WeP SOLUTIONS LIMITED's (hereinafter referred to as the "Company") Policy. Insider trading generally involves the act of subscribing or buying or selling of the Company's Securities, when in the possession of any Price Sensitive information about the Company. It also involves disclosing any Price Sensitive information about the Company to others who could subscribe or buy or sell the Company's Securities. Insider Trading invokes severe civil and criminal penalties not only on the Insider but also on the Company in certain circumstances under the Regulations issued in India under the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) Act, 1992.

The Company's internal CODE for Prevention of Insider Trading (hereinafter referred to as the "CODE") which aims to provide an understanding of not only the Law but also of the Company's policy on "Insider Trading" is applicable to all persons who fall within the definition of the term "Insiders".

In addition, this policy shall apply to all persons who are in possession of Price Sensitive Information or who are reasonably expected to have access to unpublished price sensitive information.

The CODE also lays down the guidelines, policies and procedures to be followed by COMPANY, its directors and designated employees and their dependents and other Insiders so as to prevent violation of the Law on Insider Trading by these persons.

II. DEFINITIONS RELEVANT TO THE CODE

Please refer to Annexure A attached hereto for definitions of all the terms referred to in this CODE.

III. COMPANY'S STATEMENT OF POLICY FOR PREVENTION OF INSIDER TRADING

Consistent with being a company committed to good Corporate Governance and in compliance with applicable Law, the Company hereby issues the following general and specific policies for prevention of Insider Trading.

A. GENERAL POLICIES

Prohibition of Insider Trading

The Company hereby STRICTLY PROHIBITS any action that constitutes "Insider Trading"

Appointment of a Compliance Officer

The Board of Directors of the Company hereby appoints, Company Secretary as the Compliance Officer of the Company who shall be responsible for:

- i. Setting forth policies in relation to the implementation of the Code of Conduct and the Regulations in consultation with the Board/Audit Committee.
- ii. Prescribing procedures for various activities referred to in the Code of Conduct and the Regulations.
- iii. Compliance with the policies and procedures referred hereinabove.
- iv. Monitoring adherence to the regulations for the preservation of UPSI.
- v. Grant of pre-trading approvals to the Designated Persons for trading in the Company's Securities by them / their Immediate Relatives and monitoring of such trading.
- vi. Implementation of Code of Conduct under the general supervision of the Audit Committee and the overall supervision of the Board of the Company.
- vii. The Compliance Officer shall assist all the Designated Persons in addressing any clarifications regarding the Regulations and this Code of Conduct.
- viii. The Compliance Officer shall close the trading window for such periods as he/she may deem fit in compliance with the provisions of this code and inform the Designated Persons of the same.
- ix. The Compliance Officer shall give due notice to the Insider whom UPSI has been provided for legitimate purpose to maintain confidentiality of UPSI.
- x. The Compliance Officer shall provide to the Chairman of the Audit Committee or to the Chairperson of the Board, on a quarterly basis, the details of options exercised under ESOP and trading in securities by the Designated Persons including any violations of the Code of Conduct and SEBI (Prohibition of Insider trading) regulations, 2015.
- xi. The Compliance Officer shall maintain:
 - a) Updated list of Designated Persons;
 - b) Record of disclosures and pre-clearance applications and undertakings for a period of five years;
- xii. The Compliance officer shall assist the designated persons in addressing any clarifications regarding the Regulations and this policy/code.

Appointment of an Insider Trading Compliance Committee

The Board of Directors of the Company hereby constitutes an “Insider Trading Compliance Committee” of the Company which shall be responsible for Pre-Clearance of trades by Insiders.

The Insider Trading Compliance Committee shall comprise of the following members or such other members as the Board of Directors of the Company may nominate from time to time.

- a. Company Secretary / Compliance Officer
- b. Chief Financial Officer

Determination of Designated Persons

The Board of Directors shall in consultation with the Compliance Officer of the Company, shall determine the list of Designated Persons on the basis of their role and function in the organization and the access that such role and function would provide to Unpublished Price Sensitive Information in addition to seniority and professional designation, who shall be covered by this code.

Responsibility of Managing Director

The Managing Director shall formulate/amend this Code with the approval of the Board of Directors of the Company to regulate, monitor and report trading by its designated persons and their Immediate relatives towards achieving compliance with SEBI (Prohibition on Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (“PIT Regulations”), adopting the minimum standards set out in Schedule B of PIT Regulations, as may be amended from time to time, without diluting the provisions of its regulations in any manner.

B. SPECIFIC POLICIES APPLICABLE TO INSIDERS/COMPANY/ANY OTHER PERSON

I. Prohibition of certain Dealings

Any person other than the Insiders shall not deal in the Securities of the Company when in possession of or reasonably expected to have access to ‘Unpublished Price Sensitive Information’.

Dealing in the Securities of the Company by “Insiders” when in the possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information concerning the Company is STRICTLY PROHIBITED.

Dealings in the Securities of the Company by “Insiders” during the period of a “Closed Trading Window” is STRICTLY PROHIBITED by Law as well as under Company policy.

When an Insider comes into possession reasonably expected to have access to Unpublished Price Sensitive information, such an Insider shall refrain from proceeding with the Dealings in the Securities of the Company', even though he or she had planned for such Dealings before he or she comes into possession of the Price Sensitive information.

In other words, until material information has been publicly disseminated, any insider with knowledge of it must stay out of the markets for Securities and for the Securities of any other company as to which the information may be material. Examples may include subcontractors, suppliers and customers.

Each of these above prohibitions must be complied with even if the failure to deal in the Securities of the Company could result in an economic loss or the non-realization of anticipated profit by such Insider.

II. Prohibition of certain communications

1. Insiders are STRICTLY PROHIBITED from counseling or disclosing or communicating ("tipping") Price Sensitive information to any other person (including Relatives and friends) which enables such persons to use such information to his or her profit by Dealing in the Securities of the Company.

If an insider tips material, inside information to someone (a tippee) who trades based on the information, then both the insider as well as the tippee is liable under the SEBI Regulations.

2. Insiders are also STRICTLY PROHIBITED from counseling as well as expressing opinions or making any recommendations to any person on the Securities of the Company when in possession of any Price Sensitive information.

3. Any Price Sensitive information relating to the Company is the property of the Company and the unauthorized disclosure or communication of such information is STRICTLY PROHIBITED.

4. Equally important, insider who has inside information must not permit any member of his or her immediate family or anyone acting on the employee's behalf or anyone to whom the employee has disclosed the information, to be in the market for Securities that may be affected by the information.

Individual and personal responsibility of Insiders for complying with the code

Every Insider has the individual and personal responsibility for complying with the code. The code provides guidelines only, and appropriate judgment should be exercised by all Insiders in connection with any Dealings in the Securities of the Company.

An Insider may, from time to time, have to forgo a proposed transaction in the Company's Securities even if he or she planned to make the transaction before learning of the Price Sensitive Information and even though the Insider believes he or she may suffer an economic loss or forgo anticipated profit by waiting.

III. Strict Compliance with the Policy for Preservation of Price Sensitive Information

The Company as well as all Insiders must strictly comply with the following policies for preservation of Price Sensitive Information;

1. All Insiders shall maintain the confidentiality of all Price Sensitive Information.
2. An Insider shall not pass on any Price Sensitive Information to any person, directly or indirectly by way of making a recommendation for purchase or sale of the Securities.
3. Price Sensitive information shall be handled only on a “need to know” basis.
4. Price Sensitive information shall be disclosed only to those within the Company;
 - a. who needs such information to discharge their duty;
 - b. whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appear of misuse of information;
5. All Price Sensitive information directly received by an Insider should immediately be reported to the head of department.
6. File containing Confidential or Price Sensitive Information shall be kept secure.
7. All computer containing Confidential or Price Sensitive Information must have adequate security of ‘login’ and ‘password’, disclaimers or warnings etc.

IV. Strict compliance of the Code of Corporate Disclosure Practices

The Company as well as all Insiders shall comply with the Code of Practices and Procedures for Fair Disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information attached hereto as Annexure B.

V. Strict compliance of the Confidentiality Policy

The Company as well as all Insiders shall strictly comply with the Confidentiality Policy of the Company attached hereto as Annexure C.

VI. Trading Plan

The provision of Trading Plan intends to give an option to persons who may be perpetually in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information and enabling them to trade in securities in a compliant manner. This provision would enable the formulation of a trading plan by an insider to enable him to plan for trades to be executed in future. By doing so, the possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information when a trade under a trading plan is actually executed would not prohibit the execution of such trades that he had pre-decided even before the unpublished price sensitive information came into being.

- (i) An Insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf with the trading plan.
- (ii) Such Trading plan shall not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the Insider earlier than 6 (six) months from the public disclosure of the plan;

(Note: It is intended that to get the benefit of a trading plan, a cool-off period of six months is necessary. Such a period is considered reasonably long for Unpublished Price Sensitive Information that is in possession of the insider when formulating the trading plan, to become generally available. It is also considered to be a reasonable period for a time lag in which new unpublished price sensitive information may come into being without adversely affecting the trading plan formulated earlier. In any case, it should be remembered that this is only a statutory cool-off period and would not grant immunity from action if the Insider were to be in possession of the same Unpublished Price Sensitive Information both at the time of formulation of the plan and implementation of the same.)

- (iii) not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- (iv) entail trading for a period of not less than 12 (twelve) months;
- (v) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence.

(Note: It is intended that it would be undesirable to have multiple trading plans operating during the same time period. Since it would be possible for an Insider to time the publication of the unpublished price sensitive information to make it generally available instead of timing the trades, it is important not to have the ability to initiate more than one plan covering the same time period.)

- (vi) set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
- (vii) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.
- (viii) The trading plan should mention the nature of trades, the number of securities proposed to be traded, the value of securities and the specific dates on which the trade is proposed to be undertaken and the time gap between two trades.
- (ix) Trading on the basis of such a trading plan would not grant absolute immunity from bringing proceedings for market abuse. In the event of manipulative timing of the release of unpublished price sensitive information to ensure that trading under a trading plan becomes lucrative in circumvention of Regulation 4 being detected, it would be open to initiate proceedings for alleged breach of the applicable law for time being in force.

- (x) The Compliance Officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.
- (xi) It is intended that the Compliance Officer would have to review and approve the plan. For doing so, he may need the insider to declare that he is not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information or that he would ensure that any unpublished price sensitive information in his possession becomes generally available before he commences executing his trades. Once satisfied, he may approve the trading plan, which would then have to be implemented in accordance with these regulations.
- (xii) Provided that pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan. Provided further that trading window norms and restrictions on contra trade shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.
- (xiii) The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan. Provided that the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced if any unpublished price sensitive information in possession of the insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation and in such event the compliance officer shall confirm that the commencement ought to be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information so as to avoid a violation of sub-regulation (1) of Regulation 4 of PIT Regulations
- (xiv) Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

C. POTENTIAL CRIMINAL AND CIVIL LIABILITY AND/OR DISCIPLINARY ACTION

I. Criminal and Civil Liability for Insider Trading

Insider trading attracts severe monetary penalties as well as imprisonment under various Laws. The Law authorizes both regulatory agencies as well as aggrieved third parties to proceed against the person violating Insider Trading Law by way of injunctive action, disgorgement of profits or losses availed, nullification of the Dealings, etc. It will not make any difference if the Insider has not personally made any profit from the Insider Trading. Liability also extends to any person who trades on "tips" provided by or through an Insider, or who "tips" anyone else.

If any insider who;

- a. either on his own behalf or on behalf of any other person, deals in Securities of a body corporate listed on any stock exchange on the basis of any Price Sensitive Information
- b. communicates any Price Sensitive Information to any person with or without his request for such information except as required in the ordinary course of business or under any law or
- c. counsels or procures for any other person to deal in any Securities of anybody corporate on the basis of unpublished Price Sensitive Information shall be liable to a penalty of Rs.25 Crores or three times the amount of profits made out of insider trading, whichever is higher. SEBI and the Stock Exchanges have extensive surveillance facilities that are used to monitor trading in Securities and in derivatives (like options, futures etc).

Insiders may also be liable for improper transactions by any person (commonly referred to as a "tippee") to whom they have disclosed non-public information regarding the Company or to whom they have made recommendations or expressed opinions on the basis of such information as to trading in the Company's Securities. If a Securities transaction becomes the subject of scrutiny, the transaction could be investigated. As a result, before engaging in any transaction, all Insiders covered by this policy should carefully consider how regulators and others might view the transaction in the event of the slightest suspicion.

The Company is required to communicate names of Insiders violating the Code to SEBI who may also question such insiders for those trades. Insiders shall be solely responsible for any such action taken by SEBI on those Insiders.

II. Possible Disciplinary Actions

Employees and Directors of the Company, its subsidiaries, associate companies or companies under the same management who violate this CODE shall also (without prejudice to such action being taken against the Insider by regulatory agencies or other third parties under Law) be subject to disciplinary action by the Company, which may include wage freeze, suspension, ineligibility for future participation in the Company's stock option plans and/or termination of employment.

III. Company's obligation to report violations to SEBI

In case it is observed by the Company/Compliance Officer that there has been a violation of SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 as amended, SEBI shall be forthwith informed by the Company.

IV. Indemnity Bond

Immediately after the commencement of these rules every Insider of the Company shall be liable to indemnify the Company (as per Annexure D) for the following:

- (i) To hold the Company harmless in the event of any investigation against the designated employee/director/officer for insider trading by the regulatory agencies.
- (ii) To compensate the Company for all economic losses, loss of goodwill, loss of corporate stature, loss of corporate image, damage to the Company's public image, fines imposed on the Company any penalty imposed on the Company, suffered in and as a result of any investigation by regulatory agencies into the transaction of the concerned insider.
- (iii) To compensate the Company all legal expenses incurred in defending itself in such investigations

D. PROCEDURE FOR DEALING IN THE COMPANY'S SECURITIES BY "INSIDERS" DEPENDANTS

These procedures are meant to put in place mechanisms, which would help in ensuring that no Insider Trading takes place. However, by themselves, they cannot guarantee the desired result unless every Insider and their Dependants assume total individual and personal responsibility to strictly comply with the CODE as well as the Law on Insider Trading.

Dealing in the Securities of the Company by "Insiders" is STRICTLY PROHIBITED during the period when the Insider is in possession of Price Sensitive Information. Even in a case, where the Insider is not in possession of Price Sensitive Information, the Insiders and their Dependants shall be permitted to deal in the Securities of the Company only and only during the period of an Open Trading Window by following the procedure envisaged in this CODE.

The purpose behind the suggested self-imposed "Open Trading Window" period is to help establish a diligent effort to avoid any improper transaction.

Dealing in the Securities of the Company by "Insiders and their Dependants" during the period of a Closed Trading Window is STRICTLY PROHIBITED.

All Insiders and their Dependants who do not possess Price Sensitive Information and who intend dealing with the Securities of the Company which cumulatively and in the aggregate exceeds 5000 shares during the period of an Open Trading Window shall be required to obtain Pre-clearance of the transaction from the Insider Trading Compliance Committee as per the pre-clearance procedure stipulated in Annexure E attached hereto.

The following are illustrative transactions which would require Pre-clearance of the Insider Trading Compliance Committee. Trading in the Company's Securities during the trading window should not be considered a "safe harbor," and all Insiders and their Dependants should use good judgment at all times.

a) Sale or other transfer (including gift, pledge or assignment) of shares including derivatives whether in a private transaction or in a broker's open market transaction. Also includes ownership change from, say individual ownership to joint ownership, or transfer from record ownership to a bank or brokerage account (beneficial ownership).

b) Sale of shares acquired upon exercise of a stock option.

c) Acquisition of shares by gift, inheritance or other off-market transaction

d) Gift of shares to others

However, the above restrictions shall not apply to a case where a sale has been made by the lender/ bank/ financial institution invoking the rights under the loan agreement pursuant to which securities have been pledged with such lender/ bank/ financial institution.

In addition, the following actions are also the Prohibited Actions:

1) Internet message boards, chat rooms and discussion groups – In an effort to prevent unauthorized disclosure of information concerning the Company, Insiders and any member of their households are prohibited from posting or responding to any posting located on/in Internet message boards, chat rooms, discussion groups, and other publicly accessible forums.

Violations of this policy can lead to disciplinary action up to, and including, termination of employment. Insiders are reminded that all inquiries concerning the Company are to be directed to the Compliance Officer.

2) Occasions may arise when Insiders covered by this policy become aware prior to the end of a quarter that earnings for that quarter are likely to exceed, or fall below, market expectations to an extent that is material. In such a case, those Insiders should refrain from trading even prior to the normal commencement of the quarterly Closed Trading Window. Further, for unpublished price sensitive information not emanating from within the Listed Company, trading window may not be closed.

3) The Insider Trading Compliance Committee may consider and pre-clear the transaction subject to it being reasonably satisfied that the transaction does not constitute Insider Trading and subject further to such conditions as may be deemed necessary from time to time which conditions must include the following;

a. the pre-cleared transaction shall be executed within seven trading days from the date of communication of the approval failing which fresh pre-clearance would be needed for the trades to be executed.

b. In the case of purchase or subscription of Securities, the Insiders shall hold their investment in Securities for a minimum period of 60 days from the date of purchase or allotment of Securities, as the case may be. As regards ESOPs, there shall be no requirement for minimum holding period post exercise and allotment.

c. Insiders will be prohibited from entering into transaction in derivatives like futures, options etc in shares of Company. As a result insiders will not be permitted to avail of Cash less system of exercise using futures.

d. With respect to shares of COMPANY, no transaction can be taken in the reverse direction for Sixty days. For example, if WEP SOLUTIONS LIMITED shares are bought then no sale of WEP SOLUTIONS LIMITED shares can take place for the next sixty days (but purchase can continue to take place during the next sixty days it is a open Trading Window); similarly if a sale of WEP SOLUTIONS LIMITED share happens first then in the next sixty days from the date of such sale, no purchase of WEP SOLUTIONS LIMITED share shall take place (though sale can take place during that period)- to sum up - within a gap of sixty days no transaction in WEP SOLUTIONS LIMITED shares can take place in the reverse direction of the previous sale/ buy transaction of WEP SOLUTIONS LIMITED shares. However, this restriction shall not apply to ESOP exercise and sale of shares arising from exercise of such ESOPs.

For example, if a sale takes place on 1st March, then no purchase including exercise of stock options can take place till 1st May. However, the sale of shares can continue till 1st May subject to obtaining prior clearances when the aggregate value of the transaction during the single trading window exceeds the threshold and also subject to "Closed Trading Window" restrictions as may be announced by the Committee from time to time.

4. In case sale of Securities is necessitated by Personal Emergency, the holding period may be waived by the Compliance Officer after recording in writing the reasons in this regard.

5. The Insider Trading Compliance Committee may also make all Insiders subject to certain additional restrictions on transactions known as "short swing transactions". The Compliance Officer will notify all concerned if and when these restrictions become applicable and will provide separate memoranda and other appropriate materials regarding compliance with these restrictions. The practical effect of these additional restrictions is that Insiders who purchase and sell the Company's Securities within a sixty days period may be required to disgorge all profits to the Company whether or not they had knowledge of any Price Sensitive information. Subject to certain conditions being met, these restrictions would not apply to:

(a) the receipt of an option under the Company's stock option plans, nor the exercise of that option; or

(b) the receipt of shares of the Company from any Employee Welfare Trust.

6. Application of Closed Trading Window policy to Transactions associated with Option exercises Whether option exercises and associated transactions are subject to the Closed Trading Window depends on the nature of the exercise transaction and, in particular whether there is an associated sale as explained in the following paragraphs.

(a) If an Insider simply exercises an option for cash and does not sell the shares acquired, the insider need not observe the Closed Trading Window restrictions as regards sale of such shares acquired on exercise.

(b) If an insider exercises through a broker's cashless exercise procedure (which involves a market sale by the broker), or otherwise makes a contemporaneous sale of the shares the insider acquires on exercise, the Insiders shall observe the restrictions as regards sale of such shares acquired on exercise during a Closed Trading Window just as they would for an ordinary market transaction.

(c) If an insider elects to fund any tax withholding obligations or to repay a loan related to the exercise of an option by instructing his broker to sell shares deliverable under the option or by selling shares the insider already owns, the restrictions shall apply.

E. MANDATORY DISCLOSURES BY INSIDERS TO COMPANY OF INTEREST, HOLDINGS AND THEIR DEALINGS IN SECURITIES

The disclosures to be made by any person shall include those relating to trading by such person's immediate relatives, and by any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions. The disclosures made shall be maintained by the company, for a minimum period of five years.

Initial Disclosure:

Every person on appointment as a key managerial personnel or a director of the company or upon becoming a promoter shall disclose his holding of securities of the company as on the date of appointment or becoming a promoter, to the company within seven days of such appointment or becoming a promoter.

Continual Disclosure:

- (i) Every Promoter, Director and the Designated Person of the company shall disclose to the company the number of such securities acquired or disposed of within two trading days of such transaction if the value of the securities traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of ten lakh rupees or such other value as may be specified.
- (ii) Company shall notify the particulars of such trading to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within two trading days of receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.
- (iii) Annual Statement of all holding in Securities of the Company by the Insiders. Connected Persons as well as the Immediate Family Members within 15 days from the end of every Financial year of the Company.

Formats for Disclosures

The above Initial and Continuing Disclosures to be submitted by Insiders duly signed must be as per the format attached as Annexure F and Annexure G hereto.

F. MANDATORY DISCLOSURES BY COMPANY TO STOCK EXCHANGES

The Company shall disclose the initial and continuing disclosures received from any person who is Promoter, Key Managerial Personnel and Director of the Company to the stock exchanges where the Securities of the Company are listed within two days from the date of receipt of such information.

G. MAINTENANCE OF RECORDS BY THE COMPLIANCE OFFICER

The Compliance Officer shall maintain the following documents;

1. A record of all the Insiders under the CODE duly updated from time to time.
2. A record of all the declaration and disclosures made by Insiders.
3. A record of all applications for Pre-Clearances of transactions submitted to and approved by the Insider Trading Compliance Committee either in physical or electronic form.
4. A record of all statements submitted by the Insiders to the Compliance Officer from time to time.

H. CERTAIN EXCEPTIONS TO THE CODE

For purposes of this CODE, the Company considers that the exercise of stock options or awards made under the ESOP Scheme of the company is exempt from this CODE, since the other party to the transaction is the Company itself and the price does not vary with the market but is fixed by the terms of the option agreement or the plan.

I. APPLICABILITY OF CODE TO INSIDE INFORMATION REGARDING OTHER COMPANIES

This CODE also applies to Price Sensitive information relating to other companies, including the customers, vendors or suppliers ("Business Partners" and / or "Channel Partners") of the Company, its subsidiaries and associate companies, when that information is obtained in the course of employment or business.

All Insiders should treat Price Sensitive information about the Company's Business Partners and / or Channel Partners with the same care required with respect to information related directly to the Company.
